

British Centre for Durkheimian Studies
Faculty of Theology & Religion, University of Oxford
Inaugural Workshop: Why Did Durkheim Have to Die?
September 28, 2017, St. Peter's College, Oxford

9:30 am Coffee

10:00 am SESSION I. LEGACY

Ramon Sarró (Oxford): The Arunta and the Waste Land: On the Ritual Significance of Durkheim's Death

10:45 am SESSION II. RELIGION

Bruno Karsenti (EHESS, Paris): Rethinking Religion with Durkheim Today

11:30 am Coffee

11:45 am SESSION III. RITUAL

Simon Coleman (Toronto): What of Effervescence? Durkheim in the Cathedral

12:30 pm SESSION IV. EFFERVESCENCE

Elisabeth Hsu (Oxford): Durkheim's "Effervescence" and its Afterlife in Medical Anthropology

1:15 pm Lunch

2:00 pm SESSION V. CATEGORY

Johannes Schick, Mario Schmidt, Erhard Schüttpelz, Ulrich van Loyen (Cologne): Multiplying Durkheim: The Past and Future of the Category Project

3:00 pm SESSION VI. ANOMIE

Ruy Blanes (Spanish National Research Council, Santiago de Compostela): The Current State of Anomie in Angola

3:45 pm INTERMEZZO

Robert Parkin (Oxford): A Comment on the Death of Durkheim

4:00 Tea

4:15 SESSION VII. RESOURCE

Roland Hardenberg (Goethe University, Frankfurt am Maim): Durkheim's Concept of the Sacred and Processes of Sacralization: The Resource Turn

5:00 pm Close